

COE Global Initiatives Scholarship Fund

The purpose of the College of Education Global Initiatives Award is to support study abroad opportunities for undergraduate and graduate College of Education majors. The Associate Dean responsible for International Education oversees the award program. The funds have been made available from The College of Education Global Initiatives Fund.

Eligibility:

Each candidate for the Global Initiatives Scholarship must:

- Be an undergraduate or graduate College of Education major
 - Undergraduate majors: Early Childhood Education, Elementary Education, Bilingual/Bicultural Elementary Education, Middle Level Education, SED DHH, SED LBS1, SED LVB
 - Graduate majors: One of the majors listed on the COE website.
- Be accepted to participate in one of the study abroad programs sponsored and developed by the College of Education
- Be a first-time international traveler
- Demonstrate financial need
- Award winners agree to write an article for the College of Education website summarizing their study abroad experiences

Global Initiatives Essay Questions

1. Why do you want to study abroad in general and why did you select your specific COE study abroad program?
2. What would you contribute to the College of Education study abroad program that would be unique?
3. What do you plan to get out of the program (goals, outcomes, experiences)?
4. How will your successful completion of this experience contribute to your professional and personal development?